TO SAVE MOTHER AND BABE AT FIRE

Imperils Life to Restrain Woman Who Hurls Child and Self to Death,

Mrs. Amelia Gordon, who leaped from the window of her fourth figor spartment at No. 225 West 109tl from a fire there, and her two-year- be made glad. old daughter Evelyn, whom she first ed to-day as likely to recover. Mrs. Gordon is in Knickerbocker Hospital with compound fractures of the legs and the buby is in St. Luke's with a fractured skull the child would not have been tirown out nor would Mis. Gordon have leaped had Clifford Sanford, the re ignitor of the building, been ssful in his heroic effort to save He was at work in an apart ment above when he heard Mrs. Gor She was then at the window with the child clasped to he

Sanford dashed into the place t find it ablaze. All the windows of neighboring apartment houses were crowded with persons watching Mrs. Gordon and calling to her not to leap, as she seemed on the point of doing

The janitor tried to take the baby from her and quiet her. He even got it once, but she snatched it from him and, in a panic as a mattress caught fire and filled the room with smoke. ran to the window and flung it out. Immediately afterward she leaped t

Sanford, trapped in the blazing room, climbed out of the window and ide his way hand-over-hand along a slender clothesline toward another window. The sagging line made this journey impossible, so he swung him-self through a window of an apartment on the floor below. He ran back to the Gordon apart nt and was pouring water on the fire when the firemen arrived. He had to go to St. Luke's Hospital for treatment for the burns he re-

COP MIXES IN FIGHT OF TWO MEN OVER GIRL

Agrests Them as Third Takes

Young Lady Home, torcycle Patrolman Charles Crus Central Park was on his way home in civilian clothes early this morning then he came upon two men fighting over a girl in the subway station at Broadway and 66th Street. A third SPENDS ALL BUT $85 man, who mixed in for a minute and had guns. He was having the fight of his life when Patrolman Griebe of the West 65th Street Station came along and knocked the two strangers flat with his nightatick. When locked up on charges of felonious assault they said they were John O'Moore of the Washington Hotel, Brooklyn, and Ed-ward Scanlon, No. 23 Third Street,

REISENWEBER'S MAY RUN WITH BOND

'Common Nuisance" and Must Give Security Not to Break Law.

Reisenweber's vestaurant in Eighth Avenue, near Columbus Circle, was to-day declared by United States Circuit Judge Manton to be a "common nuisance" and ordered closed for one ar but with a provise. If the man agement furnishes a $1,000 bond that no violation of the Volstead act will occur they may remain open for six months. If during that time all ands obey the law, an application may be made for a vacation of the

In arguments on June 26, Assistan United States Attorneys John H. Clark jr., Victor House and Sanford H. Cohen claimed Reisenweber's to be a public nuisance and asked permanent injunction against its operation.

OF $500, THEN BEGS

Sightseer Who Tried to Repleated Funds Arrested.

That he resorted to begging in the streets because his "bankroll" of $500 had dwindled to $85 during the short time he had been in New York "seeing the sights," was the story told by George Hoyes, thirty-six, of No. 346 West 50th Street, when arraigned before Magistrate H. Stanley Renaud in Night Court last night.

Detective Robert Gonini of Headquar tera arrested Heyes at Fifth Avenue and 45th Street on a charge of begging. 'Magistrato Renaud told Heyes be hould have sought work, and Heyes greed with the Court, but his endeavor o find employment will be delayed at ast five days, for that was the workouse sentence meted out.

PEGGY MARSH'S COSTLY CAR SMASHED. HUBBY DRIVING.

Slightly Hurt, Johnson and Male Friend Leave Wreck in Ditch After Crash Into Pole.

Peggy (Marsh) Johnson's expensive mobile became a mass of twisted steel and splinters early yesterday morning after it had come in contact with a large telegraph pole at Rockville Centre, L. J., Miss Marsh was not in the car at the time, but her hus-band, Albert L. Johnson, and another

They were on their way back to the city from Long Beach when the big car skidded on a turn, crashed into the pole and went into a ditch. What the pole did not do to the car the ditch did. Neither of the occupants was seriously injured although both were shaken and more or less bruised. They left the car where it landed and continued their trip in a taxl.

"It was a heautiful car and cost me a lot of money. I do hope it can be a lot of money. I do hope it can be repaired." said Miss Marsh when she sent a garage man after it.
